UN intervention for plebiscite in Kashmir

3685. SHRI RUMANDLA RAMACHANDRAIAH:
SHRI RAJEEV SHUKLA:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the UN Secretary General has categorically ruled out UN intervention for enforcement of 1948-49 Security Council resolution favouring plebiscite in Kashmir;

(b) if so, whether he has also appealed that only the Simla Agreement and Lahore Declaration should be taken firmly for further negotiations on Kashmir;

(c) whether the statement indicates the international acceptance of Indian stand in regard to the Kashmir and relations with Pakistan;

(d) if so, whether there seems to be any change by Pakistan after the statement; and

(e) whether Government would more to United Nations to nullify 1948 resolution?
